FISHER HOUSE

The Cambridge University Catholic Chaplaincy at Fisher House is the spiritual home for all Catholic members of the University, from undergraduates to Fellows.

Fisher House is open daily between 8.00am and 10.00pm (during term time). For the code to the external glass doors, please ask a member of the Chaplaincy Team. To enable your Cam Card to give you access to the Fisher Room, Library and Roof Terrace, please register with Fisher House through the Chaplaincy's website.

The Chapel of St John Fisher is the heart of the Chaplaincy. It is open all day.

The Fisher Room and its kitchen provide a social space for undergraduates and graduates to meet and relax during the day, with free tea and coffee.

The Fisher House Library has an extensive collection of books of history, literature, scriptural study, spirituality, and theology. It is a great place to study.

The Roof Terrace is an oasis in central Cambridge; a secluded garden above the streets.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC AND CONFIRMATION

If you are a member of the university and would like to be baptised, received into the Catholic Church, or confirmed, please contact Fr Paul (pjk1001).

WEEKLY EVENTS AT FISHER HOUSE

Tuesday, 7.00pm Apologia – the signature weekly event run by the Fisher Society in the Fisher Room. Drop by, as you can, for a complimentary homecooked dinner at 7pm, a talk at 8pm, & Compline at 9pm. The Black Swan Bar is open afterwards. Topics & speakers announced in newsletters & via social media.

Wednesday, 8.00pm Thomistic Institute Reading Group – An opportunity to study with Fr Albert the writings of the great theologians of the Church, and to understand theological ideas more deeply.

Thursday, 1.40pm A Shot of Theology – after Mass, a Chaplain will give a 10 min talk on an aspect of Catholic doctrine and life.

Friday, 1.40pm Soup Lunch – after Mass, share lunch together.
