FROM THE ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PIUS XI PROMULGATING THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING IN 1925

We firmly hope that the feast of the Christ's Kingship may hasten the return of society to our loving Saviour. It is the duty of Catholics to do all they can to bring about this happy result. Many, however, have neither the station in society nor the authority which should belong to those who bear the torch of truth. This state of things may perhaps be attributed to a certain slowness and timidity in good people, who are reluctant to engage in dispute or oppose but a weak resistance; thus the enemies of the Church become bolder in their attacks. But if the faithful were generally to understand that it behoves them ever to fight courageously under the banner of Christ their King, then, fired with apostolic zeal, they would strive to win over to their Lord those hearts that are bitter and estranged from him.
